

THE ALAMEDA DISPATCH

"For the Cause that Lacks Assistance—Against the Wrongs that Need Resistance—For the Future in the Distance—and the Good that We Can Do."

VOLUME XLII, NUMBER 13

ALAMEDA, PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN, FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1944

WHOLE NUMBER, 2220

GLEANINGS HERE AND THERE

by S. Jay Des

Moon is Smaller

The sun and the moon appear to be about the same size, but actually the moon could make its monthly trips around the earth inside a hollow globe much smaller than the sun.

Doing Their Share

The Soviet press, marking international women's day, reported that by October, 1941, 45 per cent of all Russian industrial workers were women. Special tributes were paid to a girl pilot who shot down 12 planes, to a girl ambulance driver who evacuated 348 wounded from Stalingrad and to a 16-year-old girl who with friends made "enough Tommy guns to arm a whole division."

Synthetic Rubber

Canadian Agricultural products have unlimited possibilities as raw materials in the manufacture of synthetic rubber and fuel for motor vehicles, said Dr. Paul Kolachov, Russian-born chemist, in an address at Winnipeg to the Industrial Development Board of Manitoba. He predicted "the growth of industries based on the fermentation process will bring prosperity to the farmer such as he has never seen before." In Canada the most promising carbohydrate crops that can be used in the fermentation industry include wheat, rye, sugar beets and potatoes, said Dr. Kolachov. Industries should be located near the source of the crop, he added.

Food Rationing.

British Food Minister Col. John L. Lleyellyn made an audience of women in London gasp when he told them food rationing would continue for some years after the end of the war. Explaining the necessity for the continuance of rationing, the minister said: "You cannot take a lot of able young men off farms, not only here but in Canada, the United States, Australia and New Zealand, deprive the land of fertility, and expect farm production to be kept up."

Telephone of the Future

A telephone that will answer itself and talk back to you when you come home was predicted by Bell Telephone Laboratories Inc., in New York for after the war. The self-answering phone uses a recording device, usually a magnetic record on a steel tape, from which messages can later be erased by passing the tape between two poles of a magnet, thus permitting it to be used again and again. If nobody answers the phone, the caller can start talking to the tape. When the person called comes home, he picks up the receiver and the message is "played" to him. A variation of this device already in use records a two-way conversation for permanent records, but somebody has to pick up the receiver to make it work.

Model Homes.

Ten British housewives will be the guinea pigs in an experiment to evolve the British home of the future. Work has started on 10 houses on the outskirts of London which will embody labor-saving design and modern equipment unheard of in the average English home. When the buildings are completed, 10 housewives with their families chosen by the Ministry of Health will inspect, and probably live in the houses for a period. Then they will criticize and suggest improvements. On their verdict will depend the construction of 4,500,000 homes which Britain hopes to provide for her population in the next ten years.

Heavy Problems

The problems of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, as revealed in the report covering operations between April 1, 1943, and December 31, 1943, recall the old song about the man afflicted with visions of pink elephants. "Close the door, they're coming in the window." As soon as the redoubtable Donald Gordon and his myrmidons plug up one leak another develops. Pressure on price ceilings is constantly varying and new pressures suddenly pop up in unexpected places. As soon as one problem is licked a new one, or a whole group, arises to take its place.

Destroy Art Treasures

A German incendiary squad in Italy has wantonly destroyed priceless works of art and important archives of European history dating from 1238 to 1511 despite a plea by Italian authorities to spare them. War Minister Sir James Grigg told the House of Commons. The outrage occurred Sept. 30 at Livorno, where the Italians had deposited art treasures from Naples—886 cases of selected documents from state archives and a quantity of museum pieces. Among the objects destroyed were registers of the Hohenstaufen and Angevin kings of Naples, kings of the House of Aragon and the Bourbon dynasty, and sixty to seventy paintings, including an early portrait by Botticelli and a Madonna and Child by Uinli.

Ration Coupons Will Be Same Shade as In Previous Book

To simplify a housewife's handling of ration coupons, the ration division of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has decided to keep the color scheme of ration coupons the same color as in previous books. Ration officials figured that once a woman has become accustomed to using green tea and coffee coupons, pink for sugar and red for preserves, it would be best to continue the color scheme in order to avoid complications.

More than 800,000 No. 4 ration books will be distributed in Saskatchewan during the present week, and between five and six thousand volunteers will be assisting in the work of distribution throughout the province. These volunteers are ordinary people not possessed of su-

THE COST OF HANDLING FARM PRODUCTS

The opinion has often been expressed that merchants who handle farmers' products take far too great a toll for their services. Some have even expressed the view that these charges amount to almost as much as the farmers receive.

An estimate has been made on the handling of hogs and bacon by the Hon. J. G. Taggart, Minister of Agriculture for the province of Saskatchewan. Here are the figures he gives. For 1943 the value of bacon and of pork offals shipped to Britain was 406 million dollars. The distribution was as follows: To farmers, 337 million dollars; to marketing agencies, 5 million dollars; transportation to seaboard, 30 million dollars; to packing plants for their processing and services, 34 million, which is slightly over 8 per cent of the sales value.

I have worked out a smaller distribution for grain and I find that the charges on grain for transportation to lakehead terminals and to the Grain Trade for handling the farmers' grain at the elevator, including processing and storing this grain until the buyers require it, is about the same percentage of the sales value for the separate charges as with hogs and bacon.

In considering all this it seems to me that not only are the farmers' hogs and their grain—and no doubt many other farm products—handled in an exceedingly efficient manner, but also at a surprisingly low cost to the farmers.

Items of Interest in the World of Foodstuffs

Reports indicate that India will continue to import wheat and flour regardless of the outcome of the new harvest. — The withdrawal of Axis forces from the eastern front is reported as having greatly aggravated the German food problem. — Portugal will soon begin bread rationing, owing to the difficulty of importing wheat from overseas.

Free China's 1943 rice crop is 7% larger than last year's and no general food shortage is expected. — Corn harvesting is advancing in the Argentine and reports continue very favorable. — The U.S.A. winter wheat outlook continues to improve materially with substantial rainfall in nearly all parts of the main wheat belt.

perhuman powers of knowledge and yet not lacking in human intelligence. All they ask from the public is thoughtfulness in dealings with ration book volunteers. A smile and a kind word makes life easier for most of us. Ration book distribution volunteers would be happy indeed if their path was strewn with smiles and kind words.

Victory Loan Quiz Contest For Grades Three to Eight

Regina, March 27.—Interest is mounting rapidly in connection with the educational quiz contest bearing on the approaching Sixth Victory Loan in Saskatchewan. Every school child in the province from Grades 3 to 8, inclusive, is eligible for the contest. Prizes amounting to $250.00 in Victory Bonds and War Savings certificates go to winners.

The Saskatchewan Department of Education and the National War Finance Committee in the province are co-operating in this mammoth undertaking. So also are school teachers, principals, superintendents and trustees all over the province. So also are the T. Eaton Company, at Regina and Saskatoon, the Regina Leader-Post and the Saskatoon Star-Phoenix in defraying expenses of contestants in coming to Regina or Saskatoon for the provincial finals or in providing prizes for the major winners.

Hon. Hubert Staines, Minister of Education, has addressed letters to all school principals and trustee boards in Saskatchewan asking for their hearty co-operation in the undertaking.

The quiz contest begins, in a preliminary way, during the week commencing April 3. This will take the form of elimination contests in the case of individual schools. Next will be the sub-unit contests, the sub-units of the War Finance organization being the geographical factor in this regard. The sub-unit contests will be held during the week commencing April 10, the definite date suggested being April 15. Next will be the unit finals, there being 25 War Finance units in Saskatchewan, beginning with Unit No. 1 (Estevan area) and concluding with Unit 25, which is the Unity district, in the northwest part of the province. The unit finals will be held during the week commencing April 17, the definite date suggested being April 22, and will be staged at the town or city which represents unit War Finance headquarters.

The provincial finals will be held at Regina and Saskatoon on May 6. The winners for Units 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 19 and 20 will proceed to Regina for provincial finals, and the winners for Units 6, 10, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 will battle it out for provincial honors at Saskatoon. Surprise questions will enter into the final contests.

In the case of individual school awards, there will be none unless locally arranged. For sub-unit awards there will be a distinctive ribbon to the winner in each grade group (Group "A" including Grades 6, 7 and 8, and Grade "B" consisting of Grades 3, 4 and 5).

Unit awards will be: First, a $10 War Savings certificate and ribbon; Second, a $5.00 War Savings certificate; Third, $3.00 in War Savings.

The provincial awards will be: 1st, $50 Victory Bond; 2nd, a $25 War Savings certificate; 3rd, a $10 War Savings certificate; 4th, a $5.00 War Savings certificate to all other contestants in the finals.

Thousands of school children all over the province will be taking part in these contests, and it is expected that parents will be as interested as the kiddies as the contests proceed.

THE BRITISH WOMEN

How tired the women of Britain must be. There are many women in this country who are beginning to be tired from well-doing, what with extra work and lack of help. Yet, when we think of what the British women have done and are doing, words fail us. They have worked outside their own homes in war jobs and in voluntary work. They have had the constant anxiety and the broken sleep, and discomfort of air raids. They have had difficulty in providing attractive meals and have had to spend long hours in buying supplies. Their houses generally are not as convenient as ours are, for ease in household tasks. Then, too, more people had help there than in Canada, and scarce as household help is here, it has almost disappeared in Britain. Women who never before have done any housework are doing it now, and carrying on with other work besides. If we are ever inclined to slacken, let us stop and think how fortunate we are.

A NYLON SLIP

Looking for a slip the other day, (you notice I say looking, for I was not fortunate enough to be able to get one), I saw one on the counter with a price card marked $8.95. It was a perfectly plain pink slip, and when I enquired about it, I learned it was a nylon slip, and sewn with nylon thread. The clerk said there was practically no wear out to the slip, and they were specially valuable to any one travelling, as they were so easily washed and dried very quickly. When I asked how they got it as I thought nylon things were off the market, she said they had had it some time, and as it was a size 32 it had not sold. The others sold readily. She also told me they had great difficulty in getting anywhere enough expensive lingerie, as women who never had money to spend before were buying the best.

WHY DO YOU GAIN

Many women get a shock when they start to buy their spring clothes, as they find they have to wear a size larger. If you are one of those, it might be a good idea to try to find out just why you have been gaining unduly. It is surprising the number of people who eat more than they need just for something to do. They are bored and eating provides an attractive pastime. There are not many of us who haven't often eaten something we did not need, just because we lacked something attractive to do at the moment. If you have gained too much, then you have eaten too much, and the only way you can take some pounds off is to eat differently. Eat half as much of the high calorie foods and twice as much of the low ones. In that way you can feel comfortably full and yet reduce your caloric intake. Most food low in calories are high in vitamins, so you will benefit in that way, too. It takes a strong will to reduce, but it can be done. I speak feelingly. I have been working harder than usual and the harder I worked, the hungrier I got, and the hungrier I got, the more I ate. Now I have to practice what I preach.

A SPRING TONIC

Sulphur and molasses are not the popular spring tonic they once were, but most of us feel we could use something to give us a bit more pep these days. How about trying some tonic foods? Vitamin B1 improves the appetite and pep us up generally. It is to be found in whole grain cereals. Wheat germ is especially rich in it, so add a spoonful or two of wheat germ to your soups and stews, to your cereals, and to many of the things you bake, such as muffins, breads, and spiced cookies. Use oatmeal in as many ways as possible because of its iron. Here is a bread recipe which uses oatmeal, wheat germ and molasses, is very easy to make, and tastes mighty good.

OATMEAL BROWN BREAD

1 cup rolled oats; 2 teaspoons salt; 2 tablespoons butter; 1 cup molasses; 2 cups boiling water; 1 yeast cake; 1 cup warm water; 1 cup whole wheat flour; 6 cups bread flour or 5½ cups flour plus ½ cup wheat germ.

Cook the rolled oats, salt, and two cups water until thick, then add the butter and molasses, and let cool to luke warm. Dissolve the yeast cake in the cup of warm water and add to the cooled oatmeal mixture. Stir in the whole wheat flour, then add the sifted bread flour and mix well. Let rise in a warm (Continued on Page 4)

Biscuits
that melt in your Mouth
WITHOUT BUTTER

MAGIC'S
HONEY
BISCUITS

2 cups sifted flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup shortening

1/4 cup honey
1/2 cup milk (scant)
1/2 tsp. grated lemon
rind, if available

3 tps. Magic Baking Powder
Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening until mixed. Combine 1/2 cup honey with milk; add to first mixture. Knead on lightly floured board enough to shape into smooth ball; pat 1/4-inch thick. Cut with floured biscuit cutter, place on baking sheet and bake in hot oven (450°F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Mix remaining honey with lemon rind and dribble over tops of biscuits just before removing from oven. Makes 14.

FOR SUCCESSFUL BAKING

On the Home Front too....

● When a gun goes into action every man has a job to do. Seconds count, and team work gets results.

Training . . . endless training . . . gets efficiency that makes each man part of a perfect machine.

But something more than efficiency is needed to make a top-rank fighting unit. There must be loyalty . . . that spirit of responsibility that each man feels toward his mates.

We've got efficiency on the farm front . . . we're producing more, and with less help to do it. Keep up the teamwork that will make each one of us go all out to support our men on the fighting fronts.

We too, are part of a fighting unit . . . citizens of a nation at war. We must not let our men on the fighting fronts down.

Invasion means high tension on the fighting fronts . . . combined operations . . . thorough team work in every detail. And that call for greater action comes back to us at home. We have a job to do here, too. We must all buy Victory Bonds. We have a responsibility to our mates on the firing line. We can't let them down.

And the job that we are asked to do is . . . save more, and lend more to our country. We are asked to let our country have the use of money that we do not need now. We will have the money later on to improve our farms and to buy stock and equipment; for new barns and silos; for new furnishings and conveniences for our homes.

Be ready to buy more Victory Bonds.

CHURCHILL IS CONFIDENT

MANY millions of citizens of the civilized world listened with keen attention to the address of Prime Minister Winston Churchill, delivered on Sunday from London; for forty-five minutes the British Prime Minister gave a full and inspiring review of the war effort as it is at the present time; there is no doubt but there were a lot of things Mr. Churchill could have said, which he did not say, had it been in the best interests of the Allied plans to make them public; sufficient it is to say the address had a decided ring of confidence right through it; it was evident that the speaker was elated with the progress already made by the armies of the United Nations, as well as the excellent progress by the Navies of Britain and the United States; dealing with the air battles, Mr. Churchill paid glowing tribute to the splendid job being done by the United States, Britain and Canada, in the softening up of Hitler's fortress within Europe.

Referring to the war in the Pacific, Mr. Churchill once again promised that Britain would stand side by side with the United States in order to crush Japan, after the war with Hitler had been won; he mentioned the fact that already Britain had a powerful unit of fighting ships in Indian waters to combat any move of the Japanese to turn westward, should they refuse to engage the United States fleet in Pacific waters.

Mr. Churchill took particular pains to relate the various moves which Britain has already made and contemplate making, towards rehabilitation of the fighting services once victory is achieved; this section of his address sounded like a pre-election appeal, as he was certainly confident that the time was none too distant when such plans will be required.

During his address, Mr. Churchill chided those who are always critical of every move and never satisfied to give reasonable time for the fulfillment of military tactics; referring to himself, he said that he had no personal ambitions; he was willing to give his services wherever the nation thought he would be of greatest use.

SURVEY OF EDUCATION

DURING the troubled times through which we are now passing, there is a general tendency to look ahead, and to hope for a better world when the war is ended. Education is a fundamental factor in social progress, and it holds an important place in any plans which we may make for post-war improvements. A recent report, made by the Survey Committee of the Canada and Newfoundland Education Association, contains some interesting facts concerning our Canadian schools, and points out some ways in which our educational system could be adjusted, to meet the needs of these changing times. There is a very well known saying to the effect that "the children of today are the citizens of tomorrow." With this in mind, outstanding educationalists have conducted a nationwide survey, the first to be made here. Their report deals with numerous problems relating to our school systems.

An adequate program of health service for all children is stressed as a fundamental need. This should include both medical and dental care. It is further proposed that educational opportunities be equalized in all areas, whether rural or urban. Canada at present has 20,610 school administrative units, and of this number 14,692 units employ only one teacher, while 1,430 employ but two teachers. These small units represent more than three quarters of the whole, and pupils are taught all subjects from grade one to grades nine or ten in one or two-room schools. Recommendations of the committee in this connection include the suggestion that larger units be set up to afford greater facilities for the children in rural districts, and that pupils living at a distance from the school be provided with transportation or living accommodation in hostels or boarding houses. It is also proposed that as soon as possible after the war, a building program be undertaken to supply necessary new buildings and to repair old ones, and that the number of supervisors and inspectors be increased. "Helping teachers" are suggested to assist class-room teachers, especially in the primary grades.

In respect to financial matters, the report reveals that the amount of money spent per child per year varies widely throughout the Dominion, the minimum being $31.70 per pupil, and the maximum $83.38. The average teacher's salary in Canada is $782 per year, and 79.4 per cent of the teachers receive less than $1,223 a year.

Terry and the Pirates

Fast becoming one of the most popular of the children's programs on the air is Terry and the Pirates, which started over CKCK on Monday, March 20th. This program is heard on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 4.45 in the afternoon and it tells in exciting form of the adventures of Terry and his friends who are at present attempting to obtain valuable war information from the Japs. Terry and Pat Ryan are disguised as Nazi agents and are "operating" in Yokohama.

Ten Years for Fibber McGee

Fibber McGee and Molly, the famed NBC comedy team, begin their tenth year on the air with the broadcast of Tuesday, April 18th. In real life, Fibber and Molly are Jim and Marian Jordan. CKCK carries this most popular of comedy shows every Tuesday night at 7.30, and we would like to wish the Wag of Wistful Vista and his wife a very happy anniversary and send along the hope that come 1954 they will still be brightening our lives with their down-to-earth brand of humor.

Charlie's Newest

Newest heart-throb of Charlie McCarthy is winsome Jane Powell, 14-year-old singing honey from Portland, Oregon, who has come into Charlie's life to help him forget the glamorous screen stars who plague his existence. She has been signed as a feature singer on Charlie's weekly broadcasts heard over CKCK every Sunday evening at 6 o'clock.

Canada's Offering

The role of Mathilda Pendleton in the Ma Perkins serial (CKCK, Monday through Friday at 1.15 p.m.) is taken by Miss Beverley Younger, who was born in Landis, Saskatchewan. Beverley made her dramatic debut as Little Willie in "East Lynn" at the age of two. And, from a recent photo to reach our office, she proves to be a credit to her birthplace in more ways than one. Yes, indeed.

CKCK Victory Loan Bondwagon

If present plans materialize, a group of CKCK entertainers will once again tour the Southern part of the Province in connection with the forthcoming Victory Loan campaign. The Victory Loan Bondwagon idea proved so popular in the Fifth Victory Loan drive that all concerned were insistent that another such show be organized for the next loan. So, if the Bondwagon missed your town last time, you may get a chance to see the gang some time around the end of April or first of May.

ITEMS FROM BRITAIN

The skill of the British anti-aircraft gun crews, as well as weapon performance, has immensely increased since 1940. The crews are trained and re-trained in gruelling gunnery courses. One ME410 which crossed the coast north of London by night and was met by heavy anti-aircraft fire was shot down in pitch darkness from an altitude of over four miles with only 30 rounds.

One of the most unusual jobs in any of the services is the collection of spiders' webs to be used in the sights of binoculars and submarine periscopes. The extreme delicacy and strength of each fine thread fills the need for such precise wartime instruments.

These days parachute jumping is no more dangerous than jumping off a slow moving bus. Sprained ankles and wrists are down to minimum, which is largely due to the fact that parachutes are painstakingly packed. One Flight-Sergeant has been responsible for the packing of 38,000 parachutes and says he has never had one fail to open.

Ceylon's crude rubber production exceeds the combined output of all the other territories accessible to the Allies.

By British action alone since January 1st, 1943, 19 enemy warships and a large number of E boats have been sunk, also escort vessels, minesweepers and other auxiliaries, as well as 316 merchant ships, aggregating 835,000 tons.

The De Havilland Mosquito, plywood fighter and reconnaissance bomber, which furniture makers in Britain and Canada are helping to manufacture, is now operating with the R.A.F. against the Japanese in Burma.

Civilian bomb casualties in England for February were the highest in any month since May, 1941. The total number of casualties for the month was 2,673 persons killed, missing and injured.

Safety pins were first devised by Walter Hunt in 1849.

First Objective

IN these decisive months all Canada's effort is concentrated on one great objective—the attack that is to destroy the Nazi menace and all that it represents. Years of work have gone into its preparation. The best of our young men are staking their lives on its success.

We in Canada must support and strengthen this attack with all our effort. This one purpose must command our work, our minds and our hearts.

We must not permit any scramble for private gain or individual selfish ends, to distract us from our main task. If we concentrate on seeking, individually or jointly, higher prices, higher pay or higher profits, we shall be diverting our attention from the main task at this critical time. We shall also endanger the stability of prices which we in Canada have achieved after great difficulties—a stability that is essential to efficiency and fairness in war, and to peacetime prosperity afterward.

Our young men are fighting for a Canada and a world in which all men can have faith, hope and security. Each of them wants to come back to a job—or a farm—with a future. We at home must keep secure for them a strong and stable foundation on which alone a post-war period of promise and achievement can be built.

This advertisement is one of a series being issued by the Government of Canada to emphasize the importance of preventing further increases in the cost of living now and deflation later.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Mae Machan was a visitor to Carnduff on Tuesday, between trains, having dental work done.

LAC. Charlie McEvers, R.C.A.F., at Terrace, B.C., enjoyed several days furlough with his parents in town, during last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Farnden received a cable on Wednesday last from their son, Sgt. W. Farnden, R.C.A.F., announcing his safe arrival in Britain.

SHIPPING CATTLE. Mr. Arthur Brooks, shipping manager for the Co-operative Cattle Producers, will ship from Alameda on Monday next, April 3rd.

Two rinks of curlers, skipped by T. H. Gregg and Wm. Scott, visited Frobisher on Monday evening for friendly games with the Frobisher curlers. After the games, the visitors were served refreshments in the waiting room of the rink.

REAL STORM. Twenty-four years ago this month, on 23rd inst., we had one of the worst snow storms on record for these parts; we were reminded of that occasion on Thursday last when the temperature was so mild that it threatened rain and sleet fell, later turning to snow; the snow storm of 1920 blocked roads and trains for several days.

Sgt. Jack McIlmoyl, R.C.A.F., left on Friday morning to rejoin his unit at Toronto, after a short visit in town; Mrs. McIlmoyl will remain for a time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Reed.

AC-1 Wayne Reed, R.C.A.F., located at the Repatriation Depot, Rockcliffe, Ont., left on Monday morning to rejoin his unit, after having spent ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Reed.

Constable S. F. Cunningham, R.C.M.P., Carnduff detachment, was in town on Monday afternoon in connection with the car accident which took place on Highway 18 near Oxbow on Saturday night.

Miss Mary Blow left on Wednesday evening of last week, en route to Bengough, Sask., where she has accepted a position in an implement business as office assistant. We wish you the best of luck, Mary.

Among the "Singing Stars" artists on Sunday last, broadcast from Toronto, was Miss Margaret Marie Gendron, of Weyburn. Miss Gendron is a cousin of Mrs. H. Rushton, and has been heard on several occasions over Station CHAB.

Mr. John McLeod, Oxbow, superintendent of schools, was an overnight visitor in town on Friday; he was on his way home from Estevan and found the highway o.k. until he was between here and Oxbow, where the highway was blocked with snow; the snow plow came from the west and opened the road on Saturday.

AUTHOR-ACTOR

Bernard Braden, the Canadian radio actor who is currently engaged with leading roles in the CBC drama series, "Stage 44," will be in the role of playwright on Sunday, April 2nd. His own recently completed play, "Cosmopolite Unlimited," will be the 11th production from "Stage 44," a weekly series being produced by Andrew Allan from the CBC Concert Studios, Toronto. The broadcasts are heard over the National Network on Sundays at 7 p.m., M.D.T.

Gems of Thought

REFINEMENT

The first rule of education, in all lands, is never to say anything offensive to anyone.—Voltaire.

True delicacy, as true generosity, is more wounded by an act of offence from itself, than to itself.—Greville.

Whenever education and refinement grow away from the common people, they are growing toward selfishness, which is the monster evil of the world.—H. W. Beecher.

True delicacy, that most beautiful heartleaf of humanity, exhibits itself most significantly in little things.—Mary Howitt.

That which refines character at the same time humbles, exalts, and commands a man, and obedience gives him courage, devotion, and attainment.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Culture is then properly described not as having its origin in curiosity, but as having its origin in the love of perfection: it is a study of perfection.—Matthew Arnold.

ROAST PORK WITH RICE AND SAUERKRAUT

Put a loin roast of pork in a covered roaster. Sprinkle over it a cup of washed rice, then cover thickly with sauerkraut. Add a little water, cover, and roast until the meat is cooked, stirring the rice and sauerkraut occasionally. Using the rice is new to me. Others like to make a bed of sauerkraut and roast the pork on top of this without using the rice.
