Now, more than ever, the REGULAR purchase of War Savings stamps becomes a duty. Our boys are fighting the terrific battle of liberation. It's our job to back them up.

THE REGINA BREWING COMPANY LIMITED

After being closed for a two weeks' Christmas holiday, our school reopened Monday.

FOR SALE—No. 2 Cockshutt Power Blender on rubber, $400.00. Phone 7r4, W.Kerr.

Mrs. Stan Foster and Miss Lorna Pickering returned on Monday from Lampman, where they had been for Christmas.

After spending Christmas with his family in Stoughton, E. G. Richardson left on Monday for Swift Current to continue for another month with his duties as poultry inspector.

Come and enjoy a program by local talent, and a big dance following, on Friday, January 19. Proceeds to go to support the Red Cross. In Stoughton Memorial Hall. Admission 50c, children under 12, 25c. Concert commences at 8:30 P.M.

The 1945 Annual Bonspiel of Stoughton Curling Club will commence on Monday, Jan. 15, first draw at 2 p.m. Six sheets of ice. Four competitions.
Prizes valued at $300. Fee of $1.00 for entrance of each visiting curler. Lunch stand at rink.

Fillmore hockey boys came to Stoughton Tuesday night and crossed sticks with a local line-up, the visitors winning with a good margin. Those who played for Stoughton were Goal—Steve Alawauki
Defence—Wallace, Toepfner Forwards—Clark Bros., Gib Smallwood, Jackson Bros., A.
Richardson, R. Wright, J. Dechaine.

Few of us realize how the time slips by after we settle in a certain spot to make our living. Only yesterday while talking to Mr. J. A. Hales in his pool room the writer learned that he had been attending to customers in Stoughton for forty years—Friday of this week being the anniversary of his arrival here. Here he married, raised his children, watched them go forth to earn their living; and he and his wife are again settled to the one couple home. Few of us realize when young and moving to a certain spot that it may be our location for the remainder of our sojourn on this earth. Often it is so. However, we congratulate Mr. Hales on so successfully surviving for forty years the ups and downs of business life here.

The Stoughton Board of Trade have made arrangements with Dr. Moore for general medical treatment to the residents of our village for 1945 on the same basis as last year, with the exception that the patient will pay for anesthetics when administered and also for minor operations. More people joined in 1944 than in any previous year and the Board of Trade are out to make the village 100% in 1945. The collectors are the same with the exception that Mr. Lukins takes the place of Mr. T. J.
Ryalls. Where else can you get such cheap protection? For a family it is less than 10c per month, for a single adult less than 19c. Do not ask your collector to call twice, take your fee to him, his time may be valuable.

CRAIGON—HIRON

Canon N. Smith officiated on December 29 at a wedding ceremony at St. Jude's church in Winnipeg, where principals were William Craigon, Winnipeg, and Miss Mabel E.E. Hiron of Stoughton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Craigon, and the bride daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hiron.
The bride was given away by her father. Bridal attendants were James Craigon, Winnipeg, and Miss Marney Hiron, Saskatoon. Wedding marches were played and the boys' choir sang "O Perfect Love." Ushers were R. Laidlaw, Toronto, and M. A. Maciver, Winnipeg. The bride was charming in a white sheer dress with touches of gold embroidery and a veil falling from a sweetheart headdress. She carried a white prayer book with streamers of roses.

A reception was held at Moore's banquet room, the parents of the bride and those of the groom receiving with the bridal couple. The tea table was centred with a tiered cake encircled in pink tulle, bowls of talisman roses and candelabra holding pink tapers. E.F.
Stotesbury proposed a toast to the bride. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. F. G.
Hiron, Stoughton; Mr. and Mrs.
E. F. Stotesbury, Esterhazy; and Miss Marney Hiron, Saskatoon. The couple are spending a few days in Winnipeg and will reside at Brandon. The bride's travelling costume was of powder blue wool.
